enjoy beloved classics while developing vocabulary, reading, and critical thinking skills. Each literature book in the series is a one-year course. Each chapter has five lessons with daily concept-building exercises, warm-up questions, and guided readings easy to use with suggested reading schedules and daily calendar. Equips students to think critically about philosophy and trends in culture and articulate their views through writing. A well-crafted presentation of whole book or whole work selections from the major genres of classic literature: prose, poetry, and drama. Each course has 34 chapters representing 34 weeks of study with an overview of narrative background material on the writers, their historical settings, and worldview. The rich curriculum's content is infused with critical thinking skills, and an easy-to-use teacher's guide outlines student objectives with each chapter, providing the answers to the assignments and weekly exercises. The final lesson of the week includes both the exam covering insights on the week's chapter as well as essays developed through the course of that week's study, chosen by the educator and student to personalize the coursework for the individual learner.

The history of regional sporting events in 20th-century Asia yields insights into Western and Asian perspectives on what defines modern Asia and can be read as a staging of power relations in Asia and between Asia and the West. The Far Eastern Championship Games began in 1913 and were succeeded after the Pacific War by the Asian Games. Missionary groups and colonial administrations viewed sporting success not only as a triumph of physical strength and endurance but also of moral education and social reform. Sporting competitions were to shape a new Asian man and later a new Asian woman by promoting internationalism, egalitarianism, and economic progress, all serving to direct a rising Asia toward modernity. Over time, exactly what constituted a rising Asia underwent remarkable changes, ranging from the YMCA's promotion of muscular Christianity, democratization, and the Social Gospel in the US colonized Philippines to Iranian visions of recreating the Great Persian Empire based on a vast range of archival materials and spanning 60 years and 3 continents. Pan-Asian sports and the emergence of modern Asia shows how pan-Asian sporting events helped shape anti-colonial sentiments, Asian nationalisms.
